

Shipwreck on the pond Wednesday. Smoke-stack lost. Crow all saved. We noticed Rev. L. H. Taber in town Monday.

A brick side-walk is being laid in front of the Bent's block.

Improvements have commenced on the sidewalks.

Assa comes out with a bran new Afghan.

Webb & Wakefield have their signs in place. "Be Ye Clothed."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur French have returned from a visit to Massachusetts.

Misses Cora E. and Inez M. Stuart are teaching school in Waterford with good success.

For good style and low prices go to Webb & Wakefield's One Price Store.

Mrs. Helen F. Keith has a front room to let opposite the depot.

The ordinance of papers will be administered to select candidates at the Methodist Church next Sabbath.

Mrs. Hobbs from Ipswich, Mass., is visiting her son Frank Hobbs the book-keeper at the shoe factory.

Buy your oranges, lemons, bananas, pineapples and all varieties at H. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.

The Editor and wife arrived safely at Merced Center N. H. last Friday evening.

Curbing stones are being placed in front of the Bent's block, Freedland and E. W. Howe's.

Chas. Mason claims to be the tallest, heaviest, and best man in town. Does any one dare to dispute it?

Smoke the old King Bear the best 5 cent cigar for sale at F. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.

For fine fitting and nobby garments go to Webb & Wakefield's One Price Store.

Brown Bread Mixture makes very nice rolls, better than Graham, try it, for sale by F. H. Noyes.

Webb & Wakefield, the One Price clothing store have furnished the Penn. Band with nobby uniforms.

Mrs. Aurelia Pierce is very much improved, and there are strong hopes of her recovery.

There will be a Sunday School Concert in the Cong. Church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. All are invited.

Webb & Wakefield are advertising G. A. R. suits, also a boy's suit for $3.00, the best you ever saw for the money.

We have received a copy of the South Florida Argus, and a variegated leaf of the lemon tree, as a favor from our former townsman, J. D. Wilson.

Single fare to the Grand Excursion at Portland, tickets good from the 19th to the 30th inclusive. Fare for members of the G. A. R., $1.25.

The number of Chester pigs that run in and out of people's doors have led people to inquire if it is "Agent?" for that breed.

The anniversary of the Universalist Sabbath School occurred last Sunday—the exercises as usual being very interesting. The singing was exceptionally fine.

"Pious" takes three raw eggs for lunch every forenoon at precisely 10 o'clock. He can sing very well and swear all the rest of the forenoon. Cummings says he likes the "honest critter."

Penly & Andrews are engaged to feed members of the H. H. Noyes Post, at the National Encampment, for 75c a day—or 25c a meal. They will also furnish any citizen of Norway and Paris at the same rate.

Ed Thayer and Henry Robie have just returned from Vermont and brought with them five young horses. They are all three year olds and a nice looking lot. Of these cost $1,000 in Vermont.

Annie Grover of Stoneham, was arraigned before Judge Whitman, Friday on a charge of liquor selling, and pleaded not guilty. He was found guilty and sentenced to a fine of $40, and costs. Appealed.

The Penn. Band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Huntington, at the residence of Mrs. Lucius Packard, last Friday evening. After playing several pieces in the yard in front of the house, they were invited in to "treat," after which followed much merriment.

Frank Kimball of Noyes' Drug Store was called away last week by the death of his brother Alfred who was killed by the cars at Bangor. Mr. Kimball was a dealer in cattle, and was on the road from Bangor to Portland with a load at the time of his death.

Whitecomb & Sullivan advertise parasols and fans this week. Unless there should be a radical change in the weather very soon, we fear they have made a great mistake. They have the goods on hand, however, and a finer stock was never on sale in Norway. Their Dress Goods Department is kept right up to the times, and customers will find all these goods fresh and new.

Miss Nellie Andrews has taught a splendid school in the Intermediate Department. There were 40 pupils registered and scarcely one was absent even half a day till the last two weeks, when there was some sickness among the scholars. We want a class in Arithmetic, and one in Geography, both of which recitations were very good. No one visiting this school can fail to be pleased with its appearance. The following scholars have been absent during the term: Annie Cole, Agnes Tucker, Inez Tuttle, Katie Rich, Dennis Cole, Alfred Kimball, Bertie Sanborn, Percy Farnham, Percy Farnham and Genie Warren.

The Upper Primary under the charge of Miss Ella Moulton has been a first class school in every respect. For a long time this Department has been called a difficult one to manage, but Miss Moulton has done it up to the mark, and given general satisfaction. The average attendance was cut down considerably on account of the vacation, but the school was among the pupils. The whole number registered was 37. Miss Moulton has taught 13 schools and is thoroughly fitted for the school room.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

We didn't visit the other two schools but we learn from the Supervisor they have been excellent.

S. Richards, South Paris, has a specialty in watches. See ad.

Mrs. Mary Larkin, of Rumford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. David Knapp.

Chas. B. Cummings wants 20 girls at once to work in his Paucake shop.

"Joe" speaks to the multitudes this week.

Nice Croquet sets at Noyes' Drug Store, for 75 cents.

Mrs. E. H. Woodman has opened a Dressmaker's Shop on Daring St. See ad.

G. F. Andrews and C. S. Penley, have gone to Portland to make ready for feeding the soldiers at the National Encampment.

E. H. Woodman has sold his Steam or "Monie Midge" to C. B. Cummings. Mr. W. will put in a larger one the next season if the Croquet ball is raised.

Some eighteen members of the Lodge of Odd Fellows in this village, visited the Bridgton Lodge last week.

The ordinance of papers will be administered to select candidates at the Methodist Church next Sabbath.

Mrs. Hobbs from Ipswich, Mass., is visiting her son Frank Hobbs the book-keeper at the shoe factory.

Buy your oranges, lemons, bananas, pineapples and all varieties at H. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.

The Editor and wife arrived safely at Merced Center N. H. last Friday evening.

Curbing stones are being placed in front of the Bent's block, Freedland and E. W. Howe's.

Chas. Mason claims to be the tallest, heaviest, and best man in town. Does any one dare to dispute it?

Smoke the old King Bear the best 5 cent cigar for sale at F. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.

For fine fitting and nobby garments go to Webb & Wakefield's One Price Store.

Brown Bread Mixture makes very nice rolls, better than Graham, try it, for sale by F. H. Noyes.

Webb & Wakefield, the One Price clothing store have furnished the Penn. Band with nobby uniforms.

Mrs. Aurelia Pierce is very much improved, and there are strong hopes of her recovery.

There will be a Sunday School Concert in the Cong. Church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. All are invited.

Webb & Wakefield are advertising G. A. R. suits, also a boy's suit for $3.00, the best you ever saw for the money.

We have received a copy of the South Florida Argus, and a variegated leaf of the lemon tree, as a favor from our former townsman, J. D. Wilson.

Single fare to the Grand Excursion at Portland, tickets good from the 19th to the 30th inclusive. Fare for members of the G. A. R., $1.25.

The number of Chester pigs that run in and out of people's doors have led people to inquire if it is "Agent?" for that breed.

The anniversary of the Universalist Sabbath School occurred last Sunday—the exercises as usual being very interesting. The singing was exceptionally fine.

"Pious" takes three raw eggs for lunch every forenoon at precisely 10 o'clock. He can sing very well and swear all the rest of the forenoon. Cummings says he likes the "honest critter."

Penly & Andrews are engaged to feed members of the H. H. Noyes Post, at the National Encampment, for 75c a day—or 25c a meal. They will also furnish any citizen of Norway and Paris at the same rate.

Ed Thayer and Henry Robie have just returned from Vermont and brought with them five young horses. They are all three year olds and a nice looking lot. Of these cost $1,000 in Vermont.

Annie Grover of Stoneham, was arraigned before Judge Whitman, Friday on a charge of liquor selling, and pleaded not guilty. He was found guilty and sentenced to a fine of $40, and costs. Appealed.

The Penn. Band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Huntington, at the residence of Mrs. Lucius Packard, last Friday evening. After playing several pieces in the yard in front of the house, they were invited in to "treat," after which followed much merriment.

Frank Kimball of Noyes' Drug Store was called away last week by the death of his brother Alfred who was killed by the cars at Bangor. Mr. Kimball was a dealer in cattle, and was on the road from Bangor to Portland with a load at the time of his death.

Whitecomb & Sullivan advertise parasols and fans this week. Unless there should be a radical change in the weather very soon, we fear they have made a great mistake. They have the goods on hand, however, and a finer stock was never on sale in Norway. Their Dress Goods Department is kept right up to the times, and customers will find all these goods fresh and new.

Miss Nellie Andrews has taught a splendid school in the Intermediate Department. There were 40 pupils registered and scarcely one was absent even half a day till the last two weeks, when there was some sickness among the scholars. We want a class in Arithmetic, and one in Geography, both of which recitations were very good. No one visiting this school can fail to be pleased with its appearance. The following scholars have been absent during the term: Annie Cole, Agnes Tucker, Inez Tuttle, Katie Rich, Dennis Cole, Alfred Kimball, Bertie Sanborn, Percy Farnham, Percy Farnham and Genie Warren.

The Upper Primary under the charge of Miss Ella Moulton has been a first class school in every respect. For a long time this Department has been called a difficult one to manage, but Miss Moulton has done it up to the mark, and given general satisfaction. The average attendance was cut down considerably on account of the vacation, but the school was among the pupils. The whole number registered was 37. Miss Moulton has taught 13 schools and is thoroughly fitted for the school room.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

J. A. Kenney, the road surveyor, has been making some grand improvements here recently. Mr. Kenney is a man who likes to see things even the streets, in good order. The road machine is a good thing.

John Cummings' telephone is working nicely.

John Canwell is to move into Elm Clisby's, the rent where Geo. Swan moved out.

We noticed Sym Haskell of Auburn, in town last Wednesday, looking over his land.

The familiar handwriting of A. C. Swift met our eyes the other day in a communication from Minneapolis.

Next Saturday evening will be the annual closing night of the South Park skating rink for the season. Let us all go and have one more good skate.

The pipe and ram for the cemetery are being put in this week.

Mrs. Corie Cole, nee Whitman, died this week.

[Written for the Advertiser.]

Norway in the War. No. 6.

BY C. E. WHITMAN, ESQ.

The Gunboats, by reason of the low water, in Red River, were unable to cooperate with the other vessels.

Some eighteen members of the Lodge of Odd Fellows in this village, visited the Bridgton Lodge last week.

The ordinance of papers will be administered to select candidates at the Methodist Church next Sabbath.

Mrs. Hobbs from Ipswich, Mass., is visiting her son Frank Hobbs the book-keeper at the shoe factory.

Buy your oranges, lemons, bananas, pineapples and all varieties at H. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.

The Editor and wife arrived safely at Merced Center N. H. last Friday evening.

Curbing stones are being placed in front of the Bent's block, Freedland and E. W. Howe's.

Chas. Mason claims to be the tallest, heaviest, and best man in town. Does any one dare to dispute it?

Smoke the old King Bear the best 5 cent cigar for sale at F. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.

For fine fitting and nobby garments go to Webb & Wakefield's One Price Store.

Brown Bread Mixture makes very nice rolls, better than Graham, try it, for sale by F. H. Noyes.

Webb & Wakefield, the One Price clothing store have furnished the Penn. Band with nobby uniforms.

Mrs. Aurelia Pierce is very much improved, and there are strong hopes of her recovery.

There will be a Sunday School Concert in the Cong. Church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. All are invited.

Webb & Wakefield are advertising G. A. R. suits, also a boy's suit for $3.00, the best you ever saw for the money.

We have received a copy of the South Florida Argus, and a variegated leaf of the lemon tree, as a favor from our former townsman, J. D. Wilson.

Single fare to the Grand Excursion at Portland, tickets good from the 19th to the 30th inclusive. Fare for members of the G. A. R., $1.25.

The number of Chester pigs that run in and out of people's doors have led people to inquire if it is "Agent?" for that breed.

The anniversary of the Universalist Sabbath School occurred last Sunday—the exercises as usual being very interesting. The singing was exceptionally fine.

"Pious" takes three raw eggs for lunch every forenoon at precisely 10 o'clock. He can sing very well and swear all the rest of the forenoon. Cummings says he likes the "honest critter."

Penly & Andrews are engaged to feed members of the H. H. Noyes Post, at the National Encampment, for 75c a day—or 25c a meal. They will also furnish any citizen of Norway and Paris at the same rate.

Ed Thayer and Henry Robie have just returned from Vermont and brought with them five young horses. They are all three year olds and a nice looking lot. Of these cost $1,000 in Vermont.

Annie Grover of Stoneham, was arraigned before Judge Whitman, Friday on a charge of liquor selling, and pleaded not guilty. He was found guilty and sentenced to a fine of $40, and costs. Appealed.

The Penn. Band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Huntington, at the residence of Mrs. Lucius Packard, last Friday evening. After playing several pieces in the yard in front of the house, they were invited in to "treat," after which followed much merriment.

Frank Kimball of Noyes' Drug Store was called away last week by the death of his brother Alfred who was killed by the cars at Bangor. Mr. Kimball was a dealer in cattle, and was on the road from Bangor to Portland with a load at the time of his death.

Whitecomb & Sullivan advertise parasols and fans this week. Unless there should be a radical change in the weather very soon, we fear they have made a great mistake. They have the goods on hand, however, and a finer stock was never on sale in Norway. Their Dress Goods Department is kept right up to the times, and customers will find all these goods fresh and new.

Miss Nellie Andrews has taught a splendid school in the Intermediate Department. There were 40 pupils registered and scarcely one was absent even half a day till the last two weeks, when there was some sickness among the scholars. We want a class in Arithmetic, and one in Geography, both of which recitations were very good. No one visiting this school can fail to be pleased with its appearance. The following scholars have been absent during the term: Annie Cole, Agnes Tucker, Inez Tuttle, Katie Rich, Dennis Cole, Alfred Kimball, Bertie Sanborn, Percy Farnham, Percy Farnham and Genie Warren.

The Upper Primary under the charge of Miss Ella Moulton has been a first class school in every respect. For a long time this Department has been called a difficult one to manage, but Miss Moulton has done it up to the mark, and given general satisfaction. The average attendance was cut down considerably on account of the vacation, but the school was among the pupils. The whole number registered was 37. Miss Moulton has taught 13 schools and is thoroughly fitted for the school room.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

The Lower Primary taught by Miss Annie G. Witt is the best school we have visited. The order and discipline cannot be excelled. This is a school where the teacher and child credit to teacher and pupils. Twenty-six scholars were registered, and the average attendance was 22. This is a splendid record and shows that the scholars have been interested. There is a class in reading that can't be beat, and in the first three years old that "takes cake." As a token of the pupils esteem for the teacher they presented her at the close of the term with a copy of Will Anderson's poem "Call Me a Teacher" which was very much pleased with what we saw and heard in this school.

"Gen. Beal has this thing stopped!" "Send one Regt. to the front!" says Gen. Emory, and the 11th N. Y. being in advance, moves into the gap and is cut to pieces.

"Forward the 1st Brigade!" They move on while the bullets fly thick as hail stones in a Norway storm. At double quick they press to the front. There is no skulking or breaking of the line, but the angel of death is reaping an abundant harvest on every hand.

"Forward!" The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances to a rail fence and fires a volley into the ranks, and while the other Regts. of the Brigade deploy into position, it firmly holds the enemy in check. The latter is reinforced and opens a more terrible fire than before.

The 29th Mo. advances

